The NorthEast Economic Development Organization New Mexico (NEEDO-NM) is excited to announce the availability of the ACT WorkKeys® ASSESSMENT coming to a community near you. Students and Job Seekers can be workplace ready by taking the ACT WorkKeys® ASSESSMENT. The assessments are free and successful completion can lead to earning a National Career Readiness Certificate® (NCRC®).

The assessments target 3 areas of work readiness: Workplace Documents, Applied Math and Graphic Literacy. Successful completion of the ACT WorkKeys® ASSESSMENTS can lead to earning a Bronze, Silver, Gold or Platinum NCRC® Certificate. This is a nationally recognized certification that verifies foundational workplace skills.

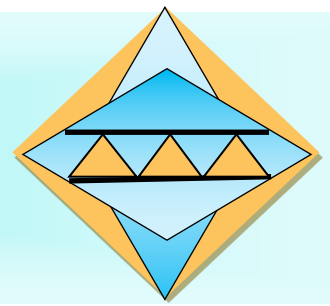

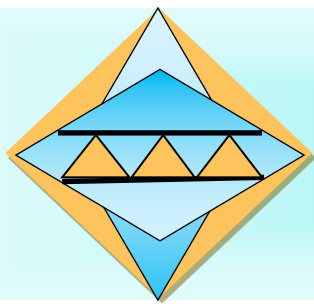

Assessments are offered at NMSU County Extension Offices and other locations in the following communities: Tucumcari, Santa Rosa, Ft. Sumner, Las Vegas, Mora, Raton, Clayton and Roy.

NEEDO-NM is a not-for-profit regional economic development organization that strives to grow the region, Counties and communities within the region. This Workforce Development project made possible with funds from CREATE Bridges (Celebrating Retail, Accommodations, Tourism, and Entertainment by Building Rural Innovations and Developing Growth Economies) Program and in partnership with New Mexico Cooperative Extension Service (NM CES) and NEEDO-NM.

Assessments are scheduled for October 16, 2023 Center for Community Innovation in Raton, NM. To learn more or sign up, Kristine Olsen: NEEDO-NM/CREATE BRIDGES - Workforce Coordinator at 806-570-0027 or by email at kolsen@nmsu.edu
